

Environment, Health & Safety Policy

We, GACL-NALCO Alkalies & Chemicals Private Limited (GNAL), engaged in the production of Caustic soda and allied chemicals and generation of electrical power and other utilities including steam mainly for our captive use are committed to ensuring Health & Safety of all our employees and other stake holders and protecting environment.

To achieve this, we commit ourselves to:

- complying with all applicable Environment, Occupational Health & Safety legislation and other requirements.
- providing safe working environment for our employees, contract workers, visitors.
- ensuring that all the operations of the company are regularly assessed and planned to prevent pollution, injuries and occupational illness.
- promoting suitable techniques for sustainable & continual improvement for prevention of accident, injury, occupational illness and pollution.
- ensuring that all employees in GNAL and its stake holders receive information, instructions, training and adequate resources as relevant to comply with EHS regulations.
- evaluating effectiveness of the EHS system through regular audit and taking remedial measures to achieve policy objectives on an ongoing basis.

GNAL shall communicate its commitment towards Environment, Health and Safety to all the stakeholder including personnel working with or on behalf of GNAL, to interested parties on demand and to the general public.

Place: Dahej

Sd/-

Date : 01/02/2022

(Chief Executive Officer)

Revision No : 00